

Emerging Medical Occupations in the Inland Empire

INNOVATIVE OUTREACH.
ENGAGING PARTNERSHIPS.
TRANSFORMATIVE OUTCOMES.

Reach Out provides learning opportunities for students in health career pathways across the Inland Empire. Using its network of community coalitions and partners communities are provided mentoring, counseling, and career guidance. Join Dr. Yara William, Director of Health Workforce in this virtual session where she will share how students can gain skills and competence to successfully enter in-demand occupations in the healthcare industry.
